

Extension Stems

Valve extension stems are available in steel, stainless steel, or bronze and are provided with a 2" square nut or handwheel as specified.

Extension stems are available for use with Mud valves, Gate valves, Butterfly valves, etc.

All components are jig drilled for interchangeability.

When ordering extension stem state length and give distance from bottom face of flange to top of handwheel or nut, or to base of floor stand.